now you know.

Dear Car Owner:

The city of LA has a 72-hour street parking limit. Vehicles exceeding that are considered abandoned and subject to towing, an impound fee and compounding daily fines.

To help maximize parking for area residents, your neighbors will be reporting cars left over 72 hours to the DOT. No one wants to be a jerk, but we residents really need our parking spaces. If you live here, you can get a free registration sticker to signify to your neighbors that your car has not been abandoned (proof of residency required).
